Click the "Schedule" button on the bottom to find dates when your class/session is offered. You can search by Date (top left tab) or...

Tip: Each time you purchase a new fitness service through the app, you'll need to book the corresponding session(s). If you have a recurring membership that auto-renews, you'll just need to book the sessions each month as the sessions are already paid.

You Can Schedule Multiple Sessions at Once

The next screen brings up the date, time and class description. If it's what you want, click "Schedule Class."

This will confirm the session details.
Repeat these steps to schedule any other sessions you purchased in Steps 1 through 3.

You can see your upcoming booked sessions by clicking the "Profile" button. In the upper left, you can see there are 3 sessions that remain to be booked in this example.

Tip: If you purchased a single session, such as a PT appointment, you'll just book one session. If you purchased a class series with 4 classes, for instance, you'll schedule 4 different time slots.
